

UNITED STATES EMBASSY BRUSSELS. BELGIUM.

Security Message for U.S. Citizens:

Protests in Brussels

On November 11, 2014.

The U.S. Embassy Brussels informs all U.S. citizens that protests will occur on November 11, in Brussels.

Traffic will be disturbed between 11:30 and 13:00 hours during the Annual Remembrance Day Event that will be held at the Unknown Soldier monument in Brussels. Approximately 300 participants are expected. (in blue on map)

A protest in support of human rights in Kashmir will be held at Place Luxembourg, near EU Parliament between 14:30 and 16:00 hours. (in red on map)

Demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and escalate into violence. You should avoid areas of demonstrations, and exercise caution if in the vicinity of any large gatherings, protests, or demonstrations.

We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens traveling to or residing in Belgium enroll in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program \(STEP\). STEP enrollment gives you the latest security updates, and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency. If you don't have Internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.

Regularly monitor the State Department's website where you can find current Travel Warnings, (including the Travel Warning for Belgium if appropriate), Travel Alerts, and the Worldwide Caution, Read the Country Specific Information for Belgium. For additional information, refer to Traveler's Checklist.

Contact the U.S. embassy or consulate for up-to-date information on travel restrictions. You can also call 1-888-407-4747 toll-free from within the United States and Canada, or 1-202-501-4444 from other countries. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays).
